MRS. E. E. LEDBETTER DIED AT TOWNVILLE

WAS MOTHER OF MR. D. A. LEDBETTER OF THIS CITY

RESULT OF FALL Received Several Days Ago—Was 84 Years Old and Wife Col. D. A. Ledbetter.

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Ledbetter, widow of the late Col. Daniel A. Ledbetter of Townville Tuesday afternoon at 6 o'clock. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Townville Baptist church, conducted by the Dr. John E. White of this city, assisted by Rev. T. C. Ligon of Townville. Mrs. Ledbetter was the mother of Mr. D. A. Ledbetter of Anderson, Mr. John P. Ledbetter of Townville and Mrs. W. K. Sharpe of Rivoli.

Mrs. Ledbetter was also a sister of Miss Helena T. Brown and an aunt of Col. J. N. Brown of this city. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Ralston, Hill and Edward Ledbetter of Townville; Louis Ledbetter of Anderson and Frank and Joe Sharpe of Rivoli, all of whom are grandsons of Mrs. Ledbetter.

About 10 days ago Mrs. Ledbetter suffered a fractured hip as a result of a fall while walking in her bedroom. From the first the physicians were doubtful as to her recovery because of her advanced age. At times she was unconscious and members of her family realized several days ago that she was in a serious condition.

Mrs. Ledbetter was born near the city of Anderson March 3, 1832, and was, therefore, in her 84th year. She was a daughter of the late Rev. Sanford Vandiver, who was the first pastor of the Anderson Baptist church. She was a granddaughter of the late Edward Vandiver, a soldier in the Revolutionary war. Her mother was Miss Susan Acker.

Mrs. Ledbetter was the last survivor of the charter members of the Townville Baptist church, which was organized in 1851 with 12 members, including her mother, Mrs. Susan Acker Vandiver, her brother, Capt. H. T. Vandiver, and the late Samuel Brown and his wife, Mrs. Henrietta T. Brown, father and mother of Col. Joseph N. Brown of this city. Mrs. Ledbetter succeeded Mrs. Helena T. Brown, who was the first president of the missionary society of the Townville church.

When but 12 years of age Mrs. Ledbetter became a member of Col. Brown's family, and she lived with the Brown family until she was married in 1853 to Lieut. Col. Daniel A. Ledbetter. Col. Ledbetter was mortally wounded in the battle of Second Manassas, August 29th, 1862, dying September 1st following. Col. Marshall, who succeeded Col. J. L. Orr as the colonel of Orr's regiment, when the latter resigned, was also mortally wounded at the second battle of Manassas and Lieut. Col. Ledbetter was promoted to succeed him as colonel of the regiment. The wounds received in the battle proved fatal however, two days later and he never assumed command of the regiment.

During Mrs. J. L. Orr's life time she was designated as the "Mother of Orr's regiment." At the death of Mrs. Orr the old soldiers, who were so fond of Col. Ledbetter and his widow, designated her as the "Mother of Orr's regiment," and as such was presented to the state reunion of Confederate veterans, which was held in this city two years ago.

Mrs. Ledbetter's long life was one of usefulness. She was a woman of noble character, a thorough Christian, a woman much beloved and truly one of the best and most revered women in the state. She was a woman of great influence for the right, and one whose place in the community and church cannot be filled. Those who know her best will miss her most.

INAUGURATING THE EXPORTATION OF COAL

Charleston, Nov. 17.—Inaugurating the exportation of coal to foreign ports from here, the steamer International, Capt. Hubt. of the Clinchfield Navigation company, loaded 2,200 tons of coal at the Southern coal pier yesterday and cleared for Havana, where the cargo will be discharged.
 That this is the first of seven shipments that have been contracted for in Cuba, to be delivered through this port. The International will return here and load a full cargo of coal for San Francisco and the steamer Clinchfield, recently acquired by the corporation of that name, a sister ship of the International, is expected here from New York, making the latter part of the month to load coal for Cuba.

Same, Est. Different.
 Summer Visitor.—Are old Stappeler and Schallhauser still carrying on that everlasting lawsuit of theirs about the boundary?
 Native.—Not those two any longer, but the lawyers are.
 Summer Visitor.—How is that?
 Native.—Oh, the farm belongs to them now.—Negotiating the matter.

Wasting may be unhealthy, but not so risky, nothing gained.

SPECIAL SERVICES WILL BEGIN ON NOV. 29

The Rev. R. Maynard Marshall of Clemson College to Conduct Services Here.

The Rev. J. H. Gibboney spent part of Tuesday at Clemson College with the Rev. R. Maynard Marshall in making final arrangements for the mission which is to be held in Grace church beginning Monday, November 29th. The principle service of the mission will be the daily evening service at which time Rev. Mr. Marshall will preach. One of the most interesting features of this mission is the fact that a series of services of this nature will be conducted in practically every parish of the Episcopal church throughout the United States during the Advent season. The Rev. Mr. Marshall says that he looks forward with a great deal of interest in coming to Anderson to hold this mission, and that he believes that it is going to mean much to the life of the parish of Grace church for them to have this mission. To the services which are to be conducted in Grace church during this time the public is most cordially invited.

REPORT ON KIRNESS Civic Association Realized $185.25 After All Bills Were Paid.

To Whom It May Concern:
 The Kirness committee wishes to thank every one who aided them in making the Kirness success that it was, and for the information of those who were under the impression that most of the money from said production would be taken out of town—we wish to state that Mr. Agostini and his assistants treated us with every courtesy and in the business settlement proved themselves perfectly honest, honorable gentlemen. They received half the door receipts only and after paying their board bills here one can easily see they did not have much of this money to take out of town.
 Please note that all the bills made and paid by the Civic association were paid to the business men of "our town."

We submit the following report:
 Receipts from Performance:
 Friday evening $320.25
 Saturday matinee 91.65
 Total $411.90
 Disbursements:
 Mr. Agostini $205.95
 Civic association 205.95
 Total $411.90

Other Receipts:
 In addition to the door receipts we proceeds from sales of candy, $19.50; advertising on program, $127.50; and a donation of $5. This brought the total receipts, including the $205.95, the Civic's share of the door receipts up to $857.75.

Expenses of Presentation.
 The expenses incident to the presentation, which were paid by the Civic, amounted to $172.50. They were distributed as follows: J. J. Trowbridge $70; Miss Rudisill $15; C. A. Reed $5; Mr. Smith $5; Mr. Driskell $5; J. E. Barton $14.50; H. D. Goss $9; Quilla Priety $40; Daily Mail $5; Intelligencer $5; incidentals $5.
 The balance left for the Civic association after all bills were paid is $165.25.

Oklahoma's Birthday.
 Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 17.—The eighth anniversary of Oklahoma statehood was celebrated yesterday by the cornerstones of the state capitol, to cost $1,500,000. A street pageant, with 5,000 marchers and 1,500 automobiles carrying officials and civilians was a feature.

Death of C. L. Loop.
 Chattanooga, Nov. 17.—C. L. Loop, first vice president of the Southern Express company at the general headquarters here died this morning at his home on Lookout mountain. He had been ill for several weeks.

Ensign Ford Acquitted.
 Pensacola, Nov. 17.—Ensign Lawrence K. Ford of the naval station here, was acquitted by a jury today of charges of manslaughter in connection with a collision of the automobile he was driving in which a woman was killed.

Handkerchiefs

Yesterday we opened a shipment of Handkerchiefs amounting to over Five Hundred Dollars, which means there's a Handkerchief of some sort in the lot for you. We know these are the pertiest ever brought to town, ranging from the five cent all pure linen to the daintily embroidered affairs at seventy-five cents.

In between you'll find the white and colored Crepe de Chines, linens prettily embroidered, fancy boxes of initial Handkerchiefs, etc.

We call your attention to these especially for your immediate use and for the further reasons its only a little while till Christmas.

You can make your selections now while the stocks are full.

All Tired Out?

BUY WISS SHEARS THEY STAY SHARP

Cast-iron Shears break easily. Soft steel shears soon become dull and refuse to cut. All poor shears work loose. Then you have to press and grind the blades together every time you try to cut. This means an aching wrist, cramped fingers and perhaps loss of temper.

WISS SHEARS do not work loose but cut clean and smooth any material, no matter how heavy or light, with ease and certainty.

Call and see the many different styles of WISS SHEARS and SCISSORS we have for every conceivable use.
